

carol popkin adams

education

Langara College (Vancouver, BC)
Diploma of Publishing: Techniques and Technologies

University of British Columbia Bachelor of Arts – Art History

employment

Freelance Graphic Designer
May 2004 – present
see website for client list

Graphic Designer/Production Coordinator
British Columbia Institute of Technology
July 1999 – May 2004

Membership Services/Administration/Front Desk Hostelling International – BC Region (Vancouver and Whistler)
June 1991 – August 1997

technical skills

All aspects of Graphic Design, Production and Pre-press

Adobe CS4 (Illustrator, Photoshop, InDesign), Acrobat Professional and Microsoft Office

Writing, editing, photography, scanning and colour correcting

Possess a high level of customer service through daily contact with vendors, printers, editors and clients interests/volunteer

Mother, snowboarder, mountain biker, photographer, traveller, outdoor enthusiast and novice bagpipe player

Volunteer designer for the United Nations Refugee Agency (Canada) and Y.A.N.A. Comox Valley charity (an organization that assists families when a child must leave the community for medical procedures)

Portfolio available online at www.carolpopkinadams.com References available upon request